ABOUT SHARON

Sharon helps her audience move from the back to the front by helping them with the confidence they never thought they had. By experiencing her heart felt message, they will discover their voice of power to reach the place God has for them. Coach Sharon understands how it feels to be underestimated and muzzled and does not want anyone else feeling like they do not measure up. She guides them to tap into their God-given gift, so they will be able to experience the amazing things God has predestined for them. She also helps her audience develop their gifts and gets them by building the momentum and movement necessary to start their process towards greatness. Sharon is known for her confidence, teaching on prayer, faith, and grind (works), which people need in order to believe in themselves to get what God really has for them.
